NOTICE TO DEFENDANT

Sentence Appeal. If you are ordered to serve more than two years in jail, you may appeal the sentence to the court of appeals on the ground that it is excessive. (However, you may not appeal the sentence as excessive if it was imposed in accordance with a plea agreement that provided for a specific sentence or a sentence equal to or less than a specified maximum sentence. If the sentence was imposed in accordance with a plea agreement that provided for a minimum sentence, you may appeal as excessive only the part of the sentence that is longer than the minimum sentence by more than two years.) Your appeal must be filed within 30 days of the date of distribution stated below. If you are sentenced to serve two years or less in jail, you may seek review of your sentence by filing a petition for review in the Supreme Court. To do this, you must file a notice of intent to file a petition for sentence review within 10 days of the date of distribution stated below. See Appellate Rules 215 and 403(h) for more information on time limits, procedures, and possible consequences of seeking review of your sentence.
